AIX Rosé 2017, Coteaux d'Aix en Provence, France

Reg. $20.99 SALE $18.99

An affordable everyday little luxury, AIX is celebrated for all things that make rosé great: France, Provence, tradition and quality. A classic blend: Grenache, Syrah, Cinsault. Delicate rose petal and strawberry notes backed by a generous amount of minerality. Light, crisp and oh so refreshing!

Weinstock Chardonnay 2016, Oxnard, California

Reg. $12.99 SALE $10.99

For Winemaker Joe Hurliman, the allure of California is the amazing and diverse climate, perfect for growing a wide variety of grapes. The Weinstock label celebrates this diversity, producing young, vibrant, fruit-forward wines, ready to be enjoyed today.

Veleta Vijiriega "VIJI" 2016, Granada, Spain

Reg. $21.99 SALE $19.99

Dominio Buenavista / Veleta Wines: Chosen Best Winery of Spain at the San Francisco International Wine Competition 2015. This local grape is gently aromatic with wild flowers, citrus, homey and peaches. Intense minerality carries the long finish.

Veleta Cabernet Sauvignon Roble 2014, Granada, Spain

Reg. $20.99 SALE $18.99

Consistent winner of Gold and Silver medals, this wine is exuberant from first aroma thru the full, persistent finish. Cinnamon and clove with notes of leather and black fruit; juicy and full of rich, tart fruit.

Bodegas Teso La Monja "Romanico" 2015, Toro, Spain

Reg. $17.99 SALE $15.99

Owned by the famous Eguran family of Sierra Cantabria, this all Tempranillo shows fabulous, dense blackberry and cassis fruit, with note of licorice. Notoriously food-friendly with soft tannins and modest alcohol. A Super Value!

Terrazze dell'Etna "Cirneco" 2010, Etna, Sicily

Reg. $45.99 SALE $39.99

High on the north slope of Mt. Etna, the 60 year old Nerello Mascalese vines yield an intense red wine of dark, plummy fruit, brown spices and grilled herbs. 92 pts Robert Parker; 17/20 Jancis Robinson; 94 Wine Enthusiast.
